Hot After Hartmann-A Russian Officer Seeking Him in Paris-Melikoff Congratulated by the Potentates on his Escape-The Kaiser's Letter.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 3.—There is much reason to h pe that with the appointment of General Melikoff, the course of Russian life will be gradually turned back to its normal channels of development without the erployment of any more harsh or incompete .t measures. Valiejeff, the president of the council of ministers, has been created count. AT THE RISK OF HIS LIFE. General Melikoff, chief of the new supreme executive commission; was fired at by a young man with a revolver this afternoon when alighting from his carriage at his residence, in Grand Maskaia street. General Jackson, March J.—Senate—A concurrent resolution was adopted unanimously expressing thanks to Mrs. Sarah A. Dorsey for a crayon portrait of Jefferson Davis, of this State, representing him in actual garb when captured, and instructing the State librarian to plane the picture in a suitable place along with the putograph letthe Form Mt. Davis.

Fassed: An act to amend charter of board of trustees to establish a publishing bouse to print books in raises retters for the blind; an act to establish a rule of measurement for Melikoff was not hurt. The man was immediately seized by the Cossacks. The bullet passed through the back folds of General Melikoff's cloak. The would be assassin fired when quite close to Melikoff. The assassia attempted to fire a accound shot at General Melikoff before he was seized, but was prevented by a blow from the general. The city is again illuminated.

DETAILS OF THE CELEBRATION ON THE After the morning serenade the czar held a reception, at which the efficers of the imperial suite and of the higher grades of the army were present. At half-past eleven o'clock the members of the council and civil functionaries were received. At noon there was a solemn procession to the palace church, the czar escorling the czarins. After the Te Deum had been su glibe czar received the diplomatic body on the throne. This was followed by a brilliant assembly, at which followed by a brilliant assembly, at which four thousand guests were present. At three o'clock in the afternoon a cantata, composed by Prince Peterof, of Oldenburg, was sung by six hundred school children, the performance concluding with the national anthem and hymn, Long Liee the Czar. The Duchess of Edinburgh efficiated for the charina at the assembly. The Duke of Eliaburgh was present at all the ceremonies, wearing the uniform of the duchess's regiment of lancers. The publication of Emperor Wilhelm's letter of congratulations to the czar, with the counter-signature of Prince Bismarck, has created a very favorable impression in all the European capitals.
